

CONDITIONS CHEAT SHEET

- ! ... many effects impose a condition, a temporary state that alters the recipient's capabilities.
- ➡ ... last either for a duration specified by the effect or until the condition is countered (ex. prone is countered by standing up).
- 🏰 ... conditions can not stack.
- 🏰 ... only the exhaustion condition can get worse if you receive it again

CONDITIONS

- 👁️ Blinded: You can't see, fail sight-based ability checks, grant Advantage to attackers, and have Disadvantage on your attacks.
- ♥️ Charmed: You can't harm the charmer, and they have Advantage on social checks with you.
- 👂 Deafened: You can't hear and fail hearing-based ability checks.
- 📦 Exhaustion: Cumulative with each level. At level 6, you die. D20 checks are reduced by 2 per level, and speed decreases by 5 feet per level. A Long Rest lowers the level by 1, removing the condition at level 0.
- 👻 Frightened: You have Disadvantage on checks and attacks while the source is in sight and can't move closer to it willingly.
- 👊 Grappled: Your speed is 0, and you have Disadvantage on attacks against anyone but the grappler. The grappler can move you, but it costs an extra foot of movement per foot unless you're much smaller.
- 🧑 Incapacitated: You can't take actions, Bonus Actions, or Reactions. Your Concentration breaks, you can't speak, and you have Disadvantage on initiative if the condition occurs then.
- 🌀 Invisible: You gain Advantage on initiative and can't be targeted by sight-based effects unless the creator can see you. Your equipment is also invisible. Attackers have Disadvantage, and you have Advantage on attacks unless the creature can see you.

- ⚡ Paralyzed: You are Incapacitated, your speed is 0, and you fail Strength and Dexterity saving throws. Attack rolls against you have Advantage, and any hit within 5 feet is a Critical hit.
- 🏠 Petrified: You transform with any non-magical items you're carrying. Your weight increases tenfold, and you stop aging. You are Incapacitated, have speed 0, fail Strength and Dexterity saves, and attacks against you have Advantage. You have resistance to all damage and are immune to the Poisoned condition.
- ☠️ Poisoned: You have Disadvantage on attack rolls and ability checks.
- 🐛 Prone: You can only crawl or spend half your Speed to stand. If your Speed is 0, you can't stand. You have Disadvantage on attack rolls, and attacks against you have Advantage if within 5 feet, or Disadvantage otherwise.
- 🧑 Restrained: Your speed is 0, attacks against you have Advantage, and yours have Disadvantage. You have Disadvantage on Dexterity saving throws.
- 🧑 Stunned: You are Incapacitated, fail Strength and Dexterity saving throws, and attacks against you have Advantage.
- *🚫 Unconscious: You are Incapacitated, Prone, and drop what you're holding. Your Speed is 0, attacks against you have Advantage, and you fail Strength and Dexterity saves. Attacks within 5 feet are Critical Hits. You're unaware of your surroundings and remain Prone when the condition ends.
